

Dear European Bibliodrama-Leaders,

we call you to action!

There will be an Edition 4 of European Bibliodrama Online.

Do you want to be part of it?

EBO IV:
„Love never ends“
1 Corinthians 13,8a

We like to ask you for leading a Bibliodrama Online for our worldwide Bibliodrama Community. The EBO Edition IV will go from December 2022 to March 2023.

You may offer a one-meeting-Bibliodrama or all other forms you think are adequate. It would be good if you are able to offer the workshop in 'Basic English', but other conditions are also possible. Maybe a bilingual setting is also a chance.

There are some preconditions we ask for:

- We ask you –like in the last EBO Editions- to do the organisation of your workshop on your own, which means the management and information of participants, having a digital space where you can work and so on lies in your responsibility.
- We ask you to find a workshoptext or -theme connected to our leading motive of EBO IV: „Love never ends“ from 1st Corinthians 13,8a
- If you want to have a payment for your workshop, you also have to organise all money-things yourself. Please remark it in your offer for the promotion.
- We kindly ask you to be minimum two leaders.
- Minimum one of you should be a trained Bibliodrama Facilitator.
- Minimum one of you should have been particint in an European Bibliodrama Online in the past.
- If you step in, please also do the leader-reflection and ask your participants for their participant-reflection. We will offer prepared google-forms for that when the EBO IV starts.
- There also will be a digital reflection meeting with the workshop leaders in 2023 after the EBO IV. We kindly ask you to be there if only possible. We try to professionalize this form of Bibliodrama with that and together with you and your experiences.
- Please promote with us the whole EBO IV workshops when the promotion is ready. You will get the EBO IV-information from us as fast as possible in the midst of November 2022.

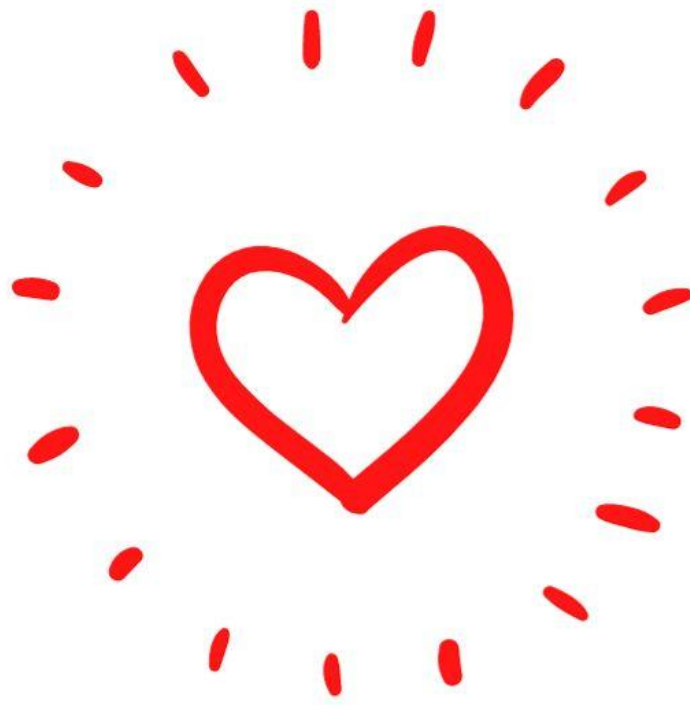

If you have ambition, time and good energy to be part of EBO Edition IV, please fill in the form (see attached) and send it back to Anja Stieghorst/Mail: anja.stieghorst@kirche-bremen.de until latest level 6th of November 2022.

Yours sincerely
